Sixty-first session
Agenda item 27
Protracted conflicts in the GUAM area and their implications for international peace, security and development

Letter dated 7 December 2006 from the Permanent Representative of Georgia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

I have the honour to transmit the appeal of the Parliament of Georgia to international organizations, parliamentary assemblies and parliaments of the friendly States dated 7 December 2006 regarding the recent statements on the latest developments in the conflict zones of Georgia, adopted by the Russian Federation State Duma on 6 December 2006 (see annex).

I should be grateful if the present letter and its annex could be circulated as a document of the sixty-first session of the General Assembly, under agenda item 27.

Annex to the letter dated 7 December 2006 from the Permanent Representative of Georgia to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

Appeal of the Parliament of Georgia to international organizations, parliamentary assemblies and parliaments of the friendly States

The Parliament of Georgia expresses its deep concern regarding the statements on "Results of Independence Referendum and Presidential Elections in South Ossetia" and on "Appeal of the Abkhazian Parliament — National Assembly to the President of the Russian Federation and the Federal Assembly of the Russian Federation on the Recognition of Independence of the Republic of Abkhazia and the Establishment of the Associated Relations between the Russian Federation and Abkhazia" adopted by the Russian Federation State Duma on 6 December 2006.

Notwithstanding the fact that both of the adopted documents have no legal force or validity in terms of international law, it cannot be assessed otherwise than as an extremely confrontational political action against the State of Georgia aimed at provoking the Georgian side, escalating the situation and hampering the process of conflict settlement through a joint international effort.

It is outrageous that the actions of the State bodies of the Russian Federation unanimously and consistently transgress the framework of a democratic State and turn back to the obsolete behaviour that should have been buried in oblivion with the dissolution of the Soviet Union and the end of the cold war. The attempts of Russia to incorporate the territories of the small neighbouring State and to unilaterally change the borders are entirely incompatible with the established modern standards and virtually rule out the possibility of establishing a long-term cooperation with Russia as a reliable partner.

In particular, we would like to draw the attention of the international community to the fact that the country that formally is a guarantor of the peace process and an "objective and neutral mediator", the so-called "peacekeeping forces" of which are deployed in both of the conflict zones in Georgia, in fact, acts as an instigator and supporter of the aggressive separatism. The statements of the State Duma of the Russian Federation once again confirmed the fairness of Georgia's demand for the internationalization of the conflict resolution process. At the same time, this is another manifestation of how difficult and ineffective it is to conduct a direct dialogue with Russia on this issue, although Georgia has always been supporting, and on numerous occasions, has been urged by its friendly States to establish this dialogue.

It is tragic that the State Duma of the Russian Federation completely ignores the fate of hundreds of thousands of refugees and internally displaced persons whose only guilt is their ethnic origin. The attempt to legitimize the results of ethnic cleansing, a vivid example of which is the adopted statement, sets a very dangerous precedent for the international community that will have a negative effect on Russia itself. However, it would be naïve to expect the protection of refugees' rights from the State body that directly supports, without any reservations, xenophobic anti-Georgian campaign carried out on the territory of Russia at present; the campaign that has resulted in deaths of completely innocent people.

The Parliament of Georgia emphasizes that the Government of Georgia shall not yield to the provocative actions and declarations of the Russian Federation aimed at preparing grounds for possible armed provocations, driving the conflict settlement process into the confrontational regime and discrediting Georgia on the international arena and that Georgia will steadily continue the process of democracy building and follow the path of the Euro-Atlantic integration.

The Government of Georgia will do its utmost to solve the territorial conflicts in a peaceful way, to intensify the direct dialogue with our Abkhaz and Ossetian compatriots and protect their rights within the boundaries of united Georgia. No matter how hard our foes may try, there is no alternative to the democratic and united Georgia, based on the European values. We do believe that all our friends, all interested international organizations and States will persistently support Georgia in its difficult but legitimate quest for common democratic and just values.

Press release issued by the Ministerial Council of the Gulf Cooperation Council at its one-hundredth session, Jeddah, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, 12 Sha'ban A.H. 1427 (5 September A.D. 2006)

The Ministerial Council of the Gulf Cooperation Council held its one-hundredth session in Jeddah on Tuesday, 12 Sha'ban A.H. 1427 (5 September A.D. 2006), under the chairmanship of His Highness Sheikh Abdullah Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the United Arab Emirates and Chairman of the current session of the Ministerial Council, and with the participation of His Excellency Abdul Rahman bin Hamad Al-Attiyah, Secretary-General of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC).

The Ministerial Council reviewed the progress made since the previous session in a number of joint cooperation fields and developments relating to major regional and international political and security issues.

With regard to economic affairs, the Ministerial Council considered minutes and reports submitted by ministerial committees on joint economic action.

The Council considered the results of the 71st meeting of the Economic Cooperation Committee, held on 10 June 2006, including their conclusions regarding a customs union, the Gulf Common Market and a monetary union; the conclusions of the 10th meeting of the Ministerial Transportation and Communications Committee, held on 14 June 2006; and implementation of the memorandum of understanding on inspection and monitoring of ships in the ports of GCC States. It also considered the minutes of the 15th meeting of the Ministerial Planning and Development Committee, of 18 June 2006.

The Council considered the minutes of the 17th meeting of the Agricultural Cooperation Committee, of 19 June 2006, and the Committee's adoption of the two implementing regulations of the two regulatory laws on pesticides, fertilizers and soil enhancers. The Council considered a follow-up report on the detailed study of the proposed water linkage among the GCC States.

The Council considered the results of the 2nd meeting of the Technical Committee and the 1st and 2nd meetings of the working group to study the development needs of the Republic of Yemen, as well as arrangements for a donors' conference to be held in London on 15 and 16 November 2006.

With regard to relations between the GCC States and other States and international groups, the Ministerial Council reviewed the progress of negotiations with other States, including China, India and Pakistan. It expressed the expectation that these negotiations would be concluded as soon as possible.

With regard to humanitarian and environmental affairs, the Ministerial Council considered the Secretariat's memorandum on the progress of joint cooperation, particularly in education, health, the environment and nationalization of the labour force. The Council also considered the decisions of the 10th meeting of the Ministers responsible for environmental affairs, held in the Kingdom of Bahrain in June 2006.

With regard to military affairs, the Ministerial Council considered the conduct of military cooperation activities during the preceding period, including preparations for the fourth conference of the Supreme Military Committee (Chiefs of Staff).

The Council expressed its satisfaction with steps taken in these areas, and emphasized the need to implement relevant decisions.

With regard to security coordination and cooperation, the Ministerial Council considered progress among the GCC States in the light of the Supreme Council's instructions and decisions and other relevant decisions in this area, and expressed its satisfaction with the implementing steps and measures taken in this regard.

With regard to the steps, mechanisms and measures adopted by the GCC States to combat the growth of terrorism, the Ministerial Council reaffirmed the established positions of the GCC States, which repudiate terrorism in all its forms regardless of the source. It reaffirmed the support of the GCC States for all regional and international efforts to combat that scourge, noting at the same time that confronting, combating and reversing terrorism can only be accomplished through international cooperation and coordination that promotes exchange of security information and experiences regarding the movements of terrorist elements and cooperation to frustrate their schemes.

The Council also calls on the international community to recognize that terrorism is a threat facing the entire world, and has no homeland, religion or nationality.

With regard to issues referred by the Supreme Council to the Advisory Board, the Ministerial Council considered the Board's views on economic citizenship and its role in strengthening Gulf citizenship, and its views on the importance of economic partnership in relations between GCC States and neighbouring States. The Council decided to submit them to the Supreme Council at its upcoming session.

On political matters, the Council discussed the overall situation in the region, and in particular the unjust Israel war against Lebanon and the brutal aggression against the Lebanese and Palestinian peoples. It also discussed developments in relations with Iran, the Iranian nuclear crisis, the situation in Iraq and in the Palestinian territories, the fate of the Middle East peace process, and recent developments in both the Sudan and Somalia.

With regard to the situation in Lebanon, the Ministerial Council followed, with great concern, the brazen Israeli aggression against Lebanon, reprehensible Israeli practices, the bombing of innocent civilians, including men, women and children, and the destruction of Lebanese infrastructure. The Council commended the heroic steadfastness of the sisterly Lebanese people and its devotion to its national unity in confronting the criminal Israeli aggression.

The Council reaffirmed its stand alongside the Lebanese people in confronting all the acts of aggression and destruction to which Lebanon has been subjected, and its belief that confronting such aggression was an Arab issue requiring a clear and firm Arab position. In this regard, the Council commended the results of the extraordinary meeting of the Arab Ministers for Foreign Affairs, held in Beirut on 7 August 2006, and the practical and effective decisions issued by it giving expression to the unified Arab position that was sought in support of Lebanese legitimacy and of achieving unity of ranks and position, consolidating Arab action in dealing with the crisis and its implications, speaking in one voice on the international stage, and taking urgent steps to address the inadequacy of international action in the face of the Israeli aggression and the resulting destruction and catastrophes.

The Council commended the efforts of the Arab delegation and the outcome of the extraordinary meeting of the Arab Ministers for Foreign Affairs, the active and effective role it played in the elucidation of the Arab point of view and the amendment of the draft text of United Nations Security Council resolution 1701, of 11 August 2006, in a way that responded to the basic requirements of legitimate Lebanese interests.

The Council welcomed Security Council resolution 1701 (2006), which called for a cessation of military operations in Lebanon, even though the resolution did not respond to all legitimate Lebanese and Arab demands, and stressed the need for all parties to comply with that resolution. It condemned violations being committed by Israel, and asked the international community to pressure Israel to lift the sea and air blockade being imposed on Lebanon.

The Council commended those States that had decided to send forces to augment the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon (UNIFIL) to be deployed in the south of Lebanon in accordance with Security Council resolution 1701 (2006).

The Council also expressed its support for Lebanon in its efforts to extend its full authority and influence over its entire national soil, and for any international effort to restore its full rights, including compensation for human and material losses resulting from the Israeli aggression. It also affirmed that it would continue to support Lebanon and contribute to reconstruction in the context of the joint Arab effort, as discussed by the Arab Ministers for Foreign Affairs at their meeting on Lebanese reconstruction held in Cairo on 20 August 2006.

The Council called on the international community to continue its efforts and earnest endeavours to see that steps achieved so far are followed up by other practical and more comprehensive steps to ensure that the foundations of a permanent, comprehensive and just peace are laid in the Middle East.

The Ministerial Council commended the decisions by both the Republic of Costa Rica and the Republic of El Salvador to close their embassies in the city of Jerusalem in conformity with internationally recognized resolutions, particularly Security Council resolution 478 (1980), which called upon the States of the world to withdraw their embassies from the Holy City. The Council also praised the positions taken by the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela in support of Arab causes.

With regard to Palestine and the Middle East peace process, the Council followed with great concern the savage and vicious Israeli aggression against the Palestinian people; the continued arrogance of Israeli forces; the waging of a war by Israel that targets civilians, including women and children; the razing of homes; the imposition of a harsh economic embargo on the Palestinian people; and the kidnapping of the Speaker of the Palestinian Legislative Council, the Deputy Prime Minister, the Minister of Higher Education and other members of the Palestinian Government. The Council considered those actions to be acts of terrorism and flagrant violations of international norms and covenants, and demanded that the Government of Israel immediately release the abductees. The Council also called on the Security Council to discharge its responsibilities and urgently adopt resolutions to compel Israel to halt its aggression against the Palestinians, desist from its arrogant exercise of power and release immediately the abducted members of the Palestinian Legislative Council, the Palestinian Council of Ministers and other persons being detained in Israeli prisons.

The Council condemned the Israeli attacks on health facilities in Palestinian territory and demanded that Israel observe international covenants and treaties which guarantee the protection of Palestinian institutions, including health facilities, and medical teams from attack.

The Ministerial Council expressed once again its desire that the Palestinians should avoid all differences that would lead to greater division and have an adverse affect on the Palestinian cause. The Council also expressed its hope that all would endeavour to preserve national unity and strive together in order to serve the Palestinian people and their just cause.

The Council demanded that Israel withdraw from the Occupied Palestinian Territory, southern Lebanon and the occupied Syrian Golan to the line of 4 June 1967.

The Council emphasized that security and stability in the region and the future of peace depended on finding a just, comprehensive and early solution to the Arab-Israeli conflict and the question of Palestine; that the war, exemplary punishments, blockades, assassinations, detentions and abductions practised by Israel in the Occupied Palestinian Territory would not provide it with either peace or peace of mind; and that the United States of America, and the international community as a whole, must discharge their responsibility to stop the aforementioned Israeli policies and practices and to give impetus to the peace process in accordance with resolutions of international legitimacy, human rights conventions and the international instruments governing the principles and practices of the international community.

The Council also expressed its support for the decision taken by the Council of the League of Arab States at its extraordinary meeting held on 20 August 2006 in Cairo, in which the League called on the Security Council to take up again the entire peace process, to discharge its responsibility to maintain international peace and security and to ensure the implementation of resolutions of international legitimacy related to the Arab-Israeli conflict, the return of occupied Arab lands and the restoration of legitimate rights.

In this context, the Council of Ministers welcomed and stressed the importance of the visit of the United Nations Secretary-General, which came at a time when regional and international conditions required increased international effort and more focused attention to the issues besetting the region so as to make a positive impact on finding prompt and just international solutions.

With regard to the issue of the continuing occupation by the Islamic Republic of Iran of the three islands, namely, Greater Tunb, Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa, which belong to the United Arab Emirates, the Council reaffirmed, as it had in previous statements, its well-established positions on these issues, namely:

- To support the sovereignty of the United Arab Emirates over its three islands, Greater Tunb, Lesser Tunb and Abu Musa, and over the territorial waters, airspace, continental shelf and exclusive economic zone of those islands, as constituting an integral part of the United Arab Emirates;

- To express regret at the failure of contacts with the Islamic Republic of Iran to produce positive results conducive to a resolution of the question of the three islands in order to promote the strengthening of security and stability in the region;

- To consider all peaceful methods leading to restoration of the right of the United Arab Emirates to its three islands;

- To invite the Government of the Islamic Republic of Iran to respond to the efforts of the United Arab Emirates to resolve the question through direct negotiations or recourse to the International Court of Justice.

With regard to the Islamic Republic of Iran's nuclear issue, the Council called for a diplomatic solution to this crisis and urged Iran to cooperate fully with the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA).

The Council also expressed its concern over the damage or environmental and humanitarian disasters that could be caused by the Iranian nuclear reactor at Bushehr, particularly since the Bushehr reactor is located in a sensitive area owing to its geographical proximity to vital installations and populated areas.

The Council also demanded that Israel accede to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and subject all its nuclear facilities to the international inspections regime of IAEA, and requested the international community to pressure Israel to do so.

The Council renewed its call to turn the Middle East, including the Gulf region, into a region free of all weapons of mass destruction.

With regard to Iraq, the Council reviewed developments in the Iraqi situation and expressed its regret at the continuing deterioration of the security situation and the increase in the number of Iraqi deaths as a result of acts of terrorism, violence and sectarian strife, and emphasized the following:

- The importance for all segments of Iraqi society to reject differences and to solidify unity and solidarity in order to restore security and stability to Iraq;

- The importance of ensuring the successful outcome of the ongoing political process in Iraq through enhanced national reconciliation efforts, which would help to preserve Iraq's unity and ensure the triumph of Iraqi national interests over all considerations;

- The need for solidarity among all segments of the Iraqi people, and the importance for the Iraqi people to stand behind their legitimate national Government and leadership and to support them in overcoming obstacles, to thwart all efforts aimed at dividing Iraq along religious or racial lines and to achieve the unity, security, stability and prosperity they so ardently desire;

- The importance of non-interference in the internal affairs of Iraq and the importance of the commitment of other States to the same approach.

The Council re-emphasized the importance of security and stability in Iraq so that friendly and brotherly States and the international community might be able to provide assistance in the areas of economic and social development as well as reconstruction.

It urged the United Nations to continue its efforts to resolve outstanding issues such as the return of Kuwaiti property and the Kuwaiti national archives as well as determining the fate of the remaining prisoners of Kuwait and other nationalities.

The Council reviewed developments in the Sudan and emphasized the following:

- The importance of the peace agreement concluded between the Government of the Sudan and opposition groups under the auspices of the African Union and signed in Abuja, Nigeria, on 5 May 2006;
- The need for this agreement to end the bloodshed among the brotherly people of the Sudan and bring about security and stability throughout that country;
- Its hope that an agreement would be concluded between the United Nations and the Government of the Sudan with regard to the deployment of international forces in the Darfur region and its hope that the Government of the Sudan would be able to achieve security and stability and devote itself to realizing development, progress and prosperity for the brotherly Sudanese people.

The Council reviewed the distressing developments of the past few months in Somalia and expressed its hope that the Government of Somalia and the leaders of the Union of Islamic Courts would come together and repudiate violence and embrace dialogue and reconciliation so as to achieve national unity, put an end to strife and guarantee stability, thus allowing Somalia to concentrate its efforts on rebuilding and development.

In that regard, the Council welcomed the peace agreement concluded by the Government of Somalia and the Union of Islamic Courts at a meeting held in the Sudan on 4 September 2006. The Council expressed its hope that the agreement would promote the unity of Somalia and the return of security and stability to the country.

The Ministerial Council endorsed the nomination by the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia of Ibrahim bin Abdul Aziz Al-Sheddi, Deputy Minister of Education in charge of foreign relations, for the post of President of the Permanent Arab Committee on Human Rights of the League of Arab States. The Council also endorsed the nomination by the State of Kuwait of Kazem Behbehani for the post of Director-General of the World Health Organization (WHO).

OF THE ANNUAL COORDINATION MEETING OF

The Representative of the UN Secretary General attended the meeting. The Meeting, after deliberation, adopted the following:

1. The Meeting emphasized its strong conviction about the central role that the United Nations, as the only universal multilateral organization, can and should play in strengthening global coordination and cooperation in dealing with global challenges and threats, and reaffirmed the determination of the OIC Member States to actively work with the United Nations along this line in accordance with its Charter. In this regard, the Meeting also reiterated that the United Nations remains an indispensable global mechanism for the promotion of a shared vision of a more secure and prosperous world. It, further, underscored that multilateralism and collective approaches, in accordance with international law and the Charter of the Untied Nations, are essential tools in addressing the common threats and challenges.

2. The Meeting commended the efforts of the Secretary General in strengthening cooperation between the OIC and other regional and international organizations and urged him to sign more cooperation agreements with these organizations, particularly with the United Nations organs and bodies.

3. The Meeting reiterated adherence to the purposes, objectives and principles of the Charter of the Organization of the Islamic Conference and once again reaffirmed its commitment to the implementation of the resolutions adopted by the OIC Summit and Ministerial Conferences.

4. The Meeting reiterated devotion to the noble ideas of peace, humanism and tolerance to aptly respond to the challenges facing humanity in the 21st century. It further emphasized that recent defiances confronting Islam compel Member States to further unite around the values of Islam and display solidarity.

5. The Meeting supported the continuation of reforms in the economic, social and cultural areas, as well as in the spheres of democratization, transparency and strengthening the role of civil society in the OIC Member States and considered it important to protect cultural, religious and racial diversity. It stressed that this diversity must not be a source of conflict but rather a source of mutual enrichment and dialogue among religions, cultures and civilizations.

6. The Meeting expressed deep concern over the growing tendency towards Islamophobia and called for concrete efforts to enhance dialogue and broaden understanding among civilizations, cultures and religions by promoting tolerance, respect for and freedom of religion and belief. In this regard, it welcomed the work of the OIC General Secretariat to establish the OIC Observatory aimed at monitoring manifestations of Islamophobia. It underlined the importance to raise public awareness throughout the world on the tenets and values of Islam, including among the youth, and underlined the crucial role of mass media in this regard. It therefore welcomed the proposal of Azerbaijan to host an OIC Conference on the role of media in the development of tolerance and mutual understanding in 2007 in Baku.

7. The Meeting reiterated the support of the OIC for the ongoing work within the framework of the Alliance of Civilizations (AoC) initiative, co-sponsored by Turkey. Furthermore, taking note of the upcoming meeting of the AoC High Level Group in Istanbul this November, where an Action Plan will be finalized and approved, the Meeting expressed its commitment to contribute to the implementation of this Plan with a view to promoting mutual respect and understanding among different cultures and societies.

8. The Meeting paid special tribute to the President of Pakistan, General Pervez Musharraf, for his timely and important initiative on "Enlightened Moderation" which was adopted by the 10th Islamic Summit Conference through its resolution no. 45/10 P(IS). The Meeting also paid special tribute to the Prime Minister of Malaysia, Dato' Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi, for the timely and important initiative on "Islam Hadhari"(Civilizational Islam). Welcoming the adoption, by the Third Extraordinary Session of the Islamic Summit Conference held in Makkah al- Mukarramah- Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on 7-8 December 2005, of the Ten Year Programme of Action which incorporates the various recommendations of the Commission of Eminent Persons on developing the political, economic, security, cultural and social conditions in the Islamic World, the meeting encouraged the Secretary General and the Member States to faithfully and expeditiously implement these recommendations.

9. The Meeting welcomed the initiative of Indonesia and Norway in convening the Global Inter-Media Dialogue in Bali on 1-2 September 2006 which underscored the important role of the international mass media in promoting greater freedom of expression, increasing tolerance and mutual understanding among peoples of different cultural and religious backgrounds as well as in advancing peace.

10. Considering the importance of dialogue among civilizations and expansion of relations between the Islamic world and other cultures and civilizations, the Meeting reiterated its commitment to broader contacts and exchanges and to the harmony of peace, freedom, rights and justice. In this regard, the Meeting recalled the following initiatives from the Islamic World: Dialogue among Civilizations-Iran; Religious and Cultural Understanding, Harmony and Cooperation-Pakistan; International Decade for a Culture of Peace and Nonviolence for the Children of the World, 2001-2010-Bangladesh; Seminar on Islam and the West-Qatar; OIC-EU Joint Forum "Civilization and Harmony; The Political Dimension"-Turkey; the International Conference of Islamic Scholars-Indonesia, Declaration of the Second Congress of Leaders of World and Traditional Religions-Kazakhstan, Alliance of Civilizations-co-sponsored by Turkey, and the International Conference on Islamic-Christian Dialogue in 2006 (Senegal).

11. The Meeting, with reference to the lecture delivered by His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI on Tuesday 12 September 2006 at the University of Regensburg in Germany, entitled "Faith, Reason, and the University Memories and Reflections", expressed their dismay and outrage and regretted the quotations cited by the Pope on the Life of the Honorable Prophet Mohamed. The Meeting further regretted the other derogatory fallacies defaming Islam in the text of the lecture. The Meeting affirmed that the quotations ended up indulging in a character assassination of the Prophet Mohamed, in flagrant contradiction with his well-established reputation as the Prophet of Mercy for all of Humanity—a reputation which has endured for centuries on end the world over. The Meeting expressed its hope that this campaign was not the prelude of a new Vatican policy towards Islam as well as towards the longstanding constructive dialogue among civilizations, cultures and religions and its expectation that the Vatican would issue statements that redress this insult and reflect the true position and views on Islam and Islamic teachings. The OIC will remain seized of this issue.

REGIONAL ISSUES

12. The Meeting recalled the adoption of the United Nations General Assembly resolution 57/337 of 3 July 2003 on the "Prevention of Armed Conflict" which reaffirmed the inadmissibility of the acquisition of territory by force and the need to bring an end to situations of foreign occupation as a commitment by the international community to promote the culture of conflict prevention.

PALESTINE AND AL-QUDS AL-SHARIF

13. The Meeting reaffirmed the centrality of the cause of Al-Quds Al-Sharif for the whole Islamic Ummah. It affirmed the Arab nature of East Jerusalem and the need to defend the sanctity of Islamic and Christian holy places. It reiterated its condemnation of the attempts by Israel, the occupying Power, to change the status, demographic composition and the character of East Jerusalem, in particular by its illegal colonization practices, including its settlement activities and construction of the Wall in and around the City.

14. The Meeting condemned the ongoing and intensifying Israeli military campaign against the Palestinian people by which Israel, the occupying Power, has continued to commit grave human rights violations and war crimes, including the killing and injuring of Palestinian civilians by use of disproportionate and indiscriminate force as well as the continued practice of extrajudicial executions, the vast destruction of properties, infrastructure and agricultural lands, and the detention and imprisonment of thousands of Palestinians, including women and children. It demanded that Israel, the occupying Power, immediately cease all such violations of international law, including international humanitarian and human rights law.

15. The Meeting strongly condemned Israel's continuation and escalation of its military aggression and acts of State terror against the Palestinian civilian population in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, particularly in the Gaza Strip, which have resulted in the killing and injury of hundreds of civilians, including women and children, and the deliberate and wanton destruction of Palestinian property and vital infrastructure. It stressed that such unlawful actions by the occupying Power constitute grave breaches of international law, i.e. war crimes, for which the perpetrators must be held accountable and brought to justice. It called for the immediate cessation of Israel's military aggression and collective punishment against the Palestinian people and called for Israel's scrupulous compliance with all of its legal obligations under international law, including under the Fourth Geneva Convention. It also called for the withdrawal of the Israeli occupying forces from within the Gaza Strip, for Israel to fulfill its responsibility to repair all damages caused to the infrastructure in the Gaza Strip, and for the immediate release of all Palestinian officials detained by Israel, the occupying Power, since 28 June 2006.

16. The Meeting condemned Israel's continued imposition of collective punishment upon the Palestinian people, including in particular the severe restrictions on the movement of persons and goods via closures and hundreds of checkpoints, some of which have been transformed into structures similar to permanent international border crossings, including at Qalandiya and Bethlehem, in the middle of the Occupied Palestinian Territory, away from the 1967 border (Green Line). It stressed that such illegal Israeli practices are in effect strangling the Palestinian economy and society, are physically severing the northern, central and southern parts of the Occupied Palestinian Territory into separate and isolated areas, and are undermining its territorial integrity and contiguity.

17. The Meeting reiterated its deep concern at the intensifying hardships being faced by the Palestinian people during the current period following the 25 January 2006 elections for the Palestinian Legislative Council and the increasing financial and political isolation being imposed on the Palestinian Authority by some members of the international community in the aftermath of the elections. It called upon Israel, the occupying Power, to refrain from withholding tax revenue transfers due to the Palestinian Authority, which is deepening the financial crisis of the Authority. The Meeting rejected the punishment of the Palestinian people for the democratic election of their representatives, and instead reaffirmed the necessity of upholding international law, international humanitarian law, including in particular the Fourth Geneva Convention, and the purposes and principles of the UN Charter with regard to the question of Palestine under all circumstances.

18. The Meeting affirmed its full support and backing for the Palestinian people in strengthening their national unity and unifying their internal front; and expressed its support for the Palestinian national dialogue efforts and for its steadfastness in the face of the illegal Israeli policies and practices. It welcomed the adoption in June 2006 of the Palestinian National Conciliation Document.

19. The Meeting reiterated its grave concern and strong condemnation regarding Israel's continuing intensive campaign of settler colonialism, including vast land confiscations and the construction and expansion of illegal settlements, and condemned Israel's intentions to proceed with the dangerous and illegal E-1 plan in and around Occupied East Jerusalem as well as its declared plans to illegally annex the Jordan Valley. Furthermore, the Meeting stressed the dangers of the Israeli Government's continuing unilateral measures in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem, and expressed their rejection of its declared intentions to proceed with further unlawful unilateral plans in the West Bank. It reaffirmed that such plans are unlawful, unacceptable and cannot alter the terms of reference of the peace process nor negate the inalienable rights of the Palestinian people.

20. The Meeting reiterated its condemnation of Israel's continuing construction of the Wall throughout the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including in and around East Jerusalem, in flagrant violation of international law and disregard for the Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice of 9 July 2004 and General Assembly resolution ES-10/15 of 20 July 2004. It expressed its deep concern at the physical, economic and social devastation being caused by the Wall, which is dissecting the Territory into several walled and isolated cantons and severing Occupied East Jerusalem from the rest of the Occupied Palestinian Territory. In this regard, it further reiterated that, if completed, the Wall, along with Israel's illegal settlement campaign and fortification of illegal checkpoints, will render the two-State solution impossible to achieve. It therefore stressed the urgency and obligation of respect for and compliance with both the Advisory Opinion and resolution ES-10/15 by Israel, the occupying power, by Member States and by the United Nations. It also expressed its disappointment at the lack of progress made by the UN Secretariat in establishing the register of damages caused by the Wall, as called for in resolution ES-10/15, and called upon the UN Secretary-General to exert all necessary efforts to expedite this matter. It also called on the Security Council to undertake its responsibilities by adopting a clear resolution and undertaking necessary measures in this regard. The Meeting called upon Member States to undertake measures, including by means of legislation collectively, regionally and individually, to prevent any products of the illegal Israeli settlements from entering their markets consistent with the obligations under international treaties, to decline entry to Israeli settlers and to impose sanctions against companies and entities involved in the construction of the wall and other illegal action in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem.

21. The Meeting called for the urgent intensification of efforts by the Quartet and the entire international community, in particular the Security Council, to address the current political and humanitarian crisis, leading to the revival of the peace process and the resumption of negotiations between the two sides and the full and honest implementation of the Road Map towards ending the occupation of the Palestinian Territory that was occupied in 1967, including East Jerusalem, and thus realizing the two-State solution. It also called on the Quartet to engage the Security Council, considering the Council's Charter authority and responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security. It also emphasized the importance of the decisions of the recent Arab Summit in Khartoum, the Sudan, especially the call for reinvigoration of the Arab Peace Initiative adopted in Beirut, Lebanon, on 28 March 2002.

22. The Meeting reaffirmed the permanent responsibility of the United Nations, including the General Assembly and the Security Council, towards the question of Palestine until it is resolved in all its aspects on the basis of international law, including a just resolution to the plight of the refugees in accordance with General Assembly resolution 194(III) of 11 December 1948. It called upon the United Nations to increase its efforts towards the achievement of a just, comprehensive and lasting peace settlement, based on the two-State solution, and on relevant United Nations resolutions, including Security Council resolutions 242 (1967), 338 (1973), 1397 (2002) and 1515 (2003) as well as agreed principles, which call for Israel's complete withdrawal from the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem, and all other occupied Arab territories and the achievement of the inalienable rights of the Palestinian people to exercise self-determination and sovereignty in their independent State of Palestine, on the basis of the 1967 borders, with Al-Quds Al-Sharif as its capital.

23. The Meeting recalled General Assembly resolution 58/292 of 6 May 2004, on the "Status of the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem", and stressed the need for follow-up in ensuring that Israeli credentials to the United Nations do not cover the territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including East Jerusalem.

24. The Meeting outlined the fundamental role of Al-Quds Committee, chaired by His Majesty King Mohammed VI, King of Morocco, and its tireless efforts to revive the peace process in order to reach a comprehensive, lasting and just peace in the Middle East, contributing to stand up for the legitimacy of the Palestinian's people cause, to preserve the Holy Lands of Al-Quds Al-Sharif and its particular spiritual dimension.

25. The Meeting reiterated the need to grant the necessary support to the "Bayt Mal A-Quds Al-Sharif" Agency for the implementation of its program and plan of action in the fields of urbanism, education and health, taking into account the humanitarian conditions, which prevail inside the Palestinian Territories.

26. The Meeting condemned Israel, the occupying Power, for the excavation works around and beneath the blessed Al -Aqsa Mosque and for willfully destroying cultural and heritage sites in Al-Quds Al-Sharif, Nablus and Al-Khaleel (Hebron), and commended the initiative of the Director General of UNESCO concerning the preservation of the historical heritage of the city of Al-Quds Al-Sharif. In this regard, it resolved to coordinate between the OIC General Secretariat and UNESCO, and invited the Member States to support this initiative and help implement it.

27. The Meeting strongly condemned the continuous threats against Islamic and Christian holy places, particularly the threats to storm and damage the blessed Al- Aqsa Mosque, and held Israel, the occupying Power, fully responsible for the consequences of these aggressions, particularly as they happen under the eyes and protection of Israeli occupation forces. It also condemned acts of terrorism committed by illegal Israeli settlers against Palestinian civilians and peace activists coming from all parts of the world to show solidarity with the Palestinian people.

28. The Meeting took note of and called for immediate implementation of resolution S-1/Res.1 adopted by the First Special Session of the Human Rights Council on 6 July 2006 in which it demanded that Israel, the occupying Power, end the military operation in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, abide scrupulously by the provisions of international humanitarian law and human rights law, and refrain from imposing collective punishment on Palestinian civilians", and also urged Israel

The Meeting requested the OIC Group in Geneva to ensure the implementation of resolution S-1/Res.1, in particular the urgent dispatch of an urgent fact-finding mission headed by the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the Occupied Palestinian Territory.

29. The Meeting expressed its full support for the decision taken by the governments of Costa Rica and El Salvador to move their embassies from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv. It reaffirmed all Security Council and General Assembly resolutions relating to Jerusalem conforming that it is an integral part of the occupied Palestinian Territory, and that all Israeli measures aimed at altering the legal, geographic and demographic character and status of Jerusalem are null and void.

SYRIA

30. The Meeting strongly condemned Israel's policy of refusing to comply with Security Council resolution 497 (1981) concerning the occupied Syrian Golan and its policies of annexation, building of colonial settlements, confiscation of land, diversion of water sources and imposition of Israeli nationality upon Syrian citizens. Recalling the UN Plan aimed at establishing a new state of affairs in Cyprus in the form of a new bi-zonal partnership with two equal constituent states, the Meeting acknowledged that neither side may claim authority or jurisdiction over the other and that the Greek Cypriots do not represent the Turkish Cypriots. The Meeting expressed its deep disappointment about the unwillingness on the part of the Greek Cypriot side to find a comprehensive settlement to the Cyprus issue on the basis of the UN plan. It called on the international community to exert pressure on its leadership to this end. The Meeting once again urged the Member States to closely associate with the Turkish Cypriots and to increase and expand their relations in all fields; and encouraged the Member States to exchange high-level visits and business delegations, develop cultural relations and sports contacts with the Turkish Cypriot side. The Meeting also urged the Member States to inform the Secretariat of the actions taken regarding the implementation of the OIC resolutions, in particular resolution 5/33-P.

91. The Meeting also welcomed the efforts of the African Union (AU) and the Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD) to promote dialogue between the Somali parties and took note of the decision that a regional deployment of a possible peace support mission should be based on the broadest possible agreement in Somalia and in support of reconciliation, peace building and protection of the Somali people.

HUMANITARIAN ACTIVITIES

92. The Meeting expressed satisfaction with the major developmental and humanitarian activities of the OIC funds for Bosnia and Herzegovina, Afghanistan and Sierra Leone in furtherance of the spirit of solidarity and cooperation within the Ummah. It urged Member States, the Islamic Development Bank and the Islamic Solidarity Fund to support the Funds. UNILATERAL MEASURES

96. The Meeting welcomed the lifting of the unilateral sanction which had been imposed on Libya and reaffirmed Libya's right to reparations for the damages it sustained as a result of these sanctions. The Meeting reaffirmed the previous positions of the Organization of the Islamic Conference (OIC), deeply regretted, once again, the verdict issued against the Libyan citizen Abdelbassit Al-Megrahi, and demanded his immediate release, since his conviction was based on political motives and has no legal justification, as was confirmed by United Nations observers as well as a number of international legal experts. In this respect, the Meeting called on the International community and human rights organizations to exercise pressure on the governments concerned in order to ensure the release of the Libyan citizen.

DISARMAMENT AND NON-PROLIFERATION:

97. The Meeting expressed its concern over the current impasse on issues related to disarmament and non-proliferation and called for a renewed determination towards achieving a balanced consensus on nuclear disarmament and nuclear non-proliferation in all its aspects. The meeting also emphasized the imperative of promoting multilateral diplomacy in resolving disarmament and non-proliferation concerns, and, in this context, underlined that treaty-based multilateral institutions established under the auspices of the United Nations are the sole legitimate bodies to verify and ensure compliance with relevant international agreements.

98. The Meeting, while noting the adoption of the United Nations Security Council resolutions 1540 of 28 April 2004 and 1673 of 27 April 2006, the scope of which remains limited to preventing the acquisition of weapons of mass destruction by non-state actors, reaffirmed that adoption of these resolutions represents temporary arrangement to fill a gap in international rules. It also reiterated that the Security Council can not assume legislative responsibilities in matters pertaining to non-proliferation and disarmament issues, since those States which seek to perpetuate the monopoly of nuclear weapons also wield the power of the veto in the Council. In this regard, the Meeting renewed its call for concluding a non-discriminatory and universally negotiated international treaty on the elimination of WMDs which should replace the temporary arrangements assumed by the Security Council under resolutions 1540 and 1673.

99. The Meeting while noting the on-going talks between Pakistan and India over conventional and nuclear confidence building measures welcomed the proposal by the Islamic Republic of Pakistan for a Strategic Restraint Regime in South Asia to promote strategic stability and security.

100. The Meeting welcomed the signing of the Treaty on a nuclear-weapon-free zone in Central Asia in Semipalatinsk on 8 September 2006 by the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan and considered this effort by five Central Asian Countries, which are all Member States of the OIC, as an effective contribution to strengthening regional and global peace and security.

101. The Meeting urged all parties directly concerned to consider seriously taking practical and urgent steps required for implementing the proposal to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the United Nations, and warned against the dire consequences of the continuing rejection of Israel to accede to the Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty (NPT) and to place promptly all its nuclear facilities under the full scope of the safeguards of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA). In this regard, the Meeting supported the draft resolution submitted by the Syrian Arab Republic to the Security Council on 29 December 2003 regarding the establishment of a zone free from nuclear weapons and other weapons of mass destruction in the Middle East and called upon the Security Council to act positively on the draft to achieve that lofty goal in the region.

102. The Meeting reaffirmed the need for total nuclear disarmament and for the elimination of nuclear weapons and other weapons of mass destruction. It called on Member States to actively take part in all related international initiatives and conferences. It called on all Member States to ratify fair and non-discriminatory international conventions and to encourage the establishment of nuclear weapon-free zones. It strongly condemned Israel for developing nuclear weapons and persistently refusing to allow the International Atomic Energy Agency access to its nuclear facilities in violation of all international agreements on nuclear proliferation.

103. The Meeting, while reaffirming the inalienable rights of Member States, including Iran, without discrimination, to develop nuclear energy for peaceful purposes, as enshrined in the NPT and the Statute of the IAEA, called and supported firmly the peaceful settlement of all outstanding issues through negotiations, without preconditions. It expressed concern over the pressure being mounted on Iran and its potential consequences for peace and security in and outside the region.

TERRORISM:

104. Recalling Section VI of the Ten Year Program of Action adopted at the Third Extraordinary Session of the Islamic Summit Conference held in Makkah Al-Mukarramah in December 2005, and Resolution 12/33-P adopted at the 33rd Session of the Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers held in Baku in June 2006, the Meeting emphasized that terrorism contradicts the teachings of Islam, which urge tolerance, mercy and non-violence. It also condemned any connection between terrorism and any race, religion and culture. It renewed the call for an international conference under the auspices of the United Nations to define terrorism and to distinguish it from the legitimate struggle of people under colonial or alien domination and foreign occupation for self-determination in accordance with the United Nations Charter and international law. It also called for a high-level meeting of the United Nations General Assembly on terrorism. It reiterated its welcome and support for the resolution issued by the International Conference on Combating Terrorism, which was held in Riyadh on 5-8 February 2005, relating to the establishment of an International Counter-Terrorism Center under the aegis of the United Nations, with a view to immediately exchange information as well as for cooperation and coordination among Member States in order to strengthen efforts to combat this dangerous phenomenon.

105. The Meeting emphasized that terrorism continues to pose a threat to international peace, security and stability. It does not have any justification and should be condemned unreservedly. Terrorism has no particular religion, race, ethnic origin, nationality or a geographic region. In this vein, any attempt to associate terrorism with any religion, especially with Islam would serve the interests of terrorists. It is not possible to combat terrorism effectively without international solidarity and cooperation. The international community should therefore agree to a common and consistent approach in identifying, defining, condemning, isolating and punishing all terrorists and their supports. Due to the transnational nature of terrorism, the efforts to fight against it should be carried out on a global scale. United Nations is the main forum to promote international cooperation against terrorism. Full compliance with the provisions of the UN Security Council resolutions and international conventions on fight against terrorism is vitally important.

106. The Meeting took note of the adoption of the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy and called for a review mechanism to provide a comprehensive Strategy which duly takes into account the root causes of terrorism and draw distinction between terrorism and the struggle for the right of self determination by the people under foreign occupation or alien domination. The meeting recognized that foreign occupation, state terrorism, political and economic injustice and denial of right of self-determination to people are the main root causes of terrorism. The meeting recognized that a time-structured approach, envisaging short; medium; and long term objectives, to the implementation of the strategy could best accommodate the contentious issues related to the strategy.

107. The Meeting also reaffirmed its determination to make every effort to reach an agreement on and conclude a comprehensive convention on international terrorism, including by resolving the outstanding issues related to the legal definition of terrorism and scope of the acts covered by the convention, so that it can serve as an effective instrument to counter terrorism.

UN REFORM

108. The Meeting underlined the need for evolving common perceptions and agreed approaches to address both the new and existing threats to international peace and security in the context of multilateralism. In this regard, while underscoring that the process of UN reform should not take place at the expense of the UN principles, the Meeting emphasized the need for cooperative multilateralism to pursue and promote the UN Charter principles. The Meeting, also, reiterated the OIC's stance in support of the principle of the United Nations reform, including the expansion of the Security Council's membership, in accordance with the relevant UNGA resolutions, and taking into consideration the principles of sovereign equality of all States and the need to ensure equitable geographic distribution.

109. The Meeting emphasized that the question of reform and expansion of the UN Security Council is of direct and vital interest for all OIC Members States. It, therefore, called on its Member States to actively and effectively take part in the UN Security Council reform process, in accordance with the relevant declarations, statements and resolutions issued by the OIC.

110. The Meeting reiterated its support for a comprehensive reform of the Security Council in all its aspects in order to make it more democratic, representative, transparent and accountable as well as to enhance the legitimacy and effectiveness of its decisions.

111. The Meeting highlighted that in the current era of regional blocks, the OIC is the largest institution after the United Nations, which brings together one-fifth of the world population. Keeping in view the significant demographic and political weight of the OIC Member States of the Security Council also bears particular importance, not only from the perspective of increased efficiency, but also to ensure the representation of the main forms of civilization, including the adequate representation of the OIC Member States in any category of an expanded Security Council. It reaffirmed its decision that any reform proposal which neglects the adequate representation of the Islamic Ummah in any category of membership in an extended Security Council will not be acceptable to the Islamic World.

112. The Meeting also stressed an increased role of regional groups in determining their representation on the Council. It also recognized that there was a wide support for increasing the number of non-permanent members in the Security Council.

113. The Meeting underlined the essential prerequisite of following a uniform approach on all aspects of UN reform and achieving the expansion of the Security Council with the broadest possible agreement. In this context, and keeping in view the prevailing divergent positions among UN member states on important aspects of Security Council reform, the Meeting stressed the initiation of constructive negotiation between all UN Member States, to refrain from pushing divisive votes, without imposing any time limits. It called for and to building upon the points of convergence such as the need to enlarge the Council, to increase the representation of developing countries, and to improve the working methods and transparency of the Council's work.

114. The Meeting stressed the importance of enhancing the solidarity and cohesion in the voting patterns at the United Nations organs on issues of mutual concern to the OIC Member States in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the OIC Summits and Ministerial Conferences. In this context, the Meeting called for the observance of this important tenet which upholds the credibility and integrity of the OIC.

HUMAN RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS:

115. The Meeting strongly condemned the publication of offensive, provocative, irresponsible and blasphemous caricatures of the Prophet (PBUH) in the print and electronic media of some Western countries and their republication under the pretext of the freedom of expression and press freedom. It stressed that the right to freedom of expression should be exercised with responsibility and in accordance with the law.

116. The Meeting expressed its deep concern over the growing phenomenon of intolerance and discrimination against Muslim communities in non-OIC Member States, particularly in the West, including the promulgation and oppressive application of restrictive laws and other measures. It emphasized that all Islamophobic practices constitute an infringement of human dignity and contradict the provisions of the international human rights documents.

117. The Meeting called on the United Nations Human Rights Council to formulate an internationally binding document to promote global respect for all religions and cultural values and prevent intolerance, discrimination and instigation of hatred against any group or followers of any religion.

118. The Meeting expressed its appreciation and full satisfaction for the laudable collective efforts of the OIC Group in Geneva to coordinate and harmonize the positions of the OIC Member States within the Human Rights Council; to deployed collective and intensive efforts to enable newly established HRC to take concrete measures for the respect and protection of human rights in the occupied Palestinian territories; and Lebanon; to placed two crucial issues for the OIC namely occupied Palestinian territories and incitement to racial and religious hatred and the promotion of tolerance at the top of the permanent agenda of the Human Rights Council.

119. The Meeting expressed its opposition to the practice of submitting country-specific resolutions on human rights situations which are selectively targeting developing and Islamic countries. It reaffirmed that this practice is one of the main reasons that transforms the work of human rights bodies into an extremely political exercise rather than contributes to the advancement of the cause of human rights.

120. The Meeting stressed the need to find fair and just solutions to the problems facing Muslim minorities in the world, including in particular denying them the right to exercise their political, civil and cultural rights, the gross human rights violations which at times amount to ethnic cleansing, in addition to religious and sectarian segregation, socio-economic backwardness, and exclusion form effective political activity in their countries.

121. The Meeting agreed that the General Assembly representing universal membership, in accordance with United Nations Charter must be enabled to exercise its authority in addressing all major issues, including peace and security, development and human rights. The Meeting further called for halting and reversing the encroachment by the Security Council on the Assembly's prerogatives and functions.

DEVELOPMENT ISSUES:

122. The Meeting, recognizing the central role of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) in the promotion of socio-economic development, called for its transformation into an effective policy dialogue platform, to use its mechanism for monitoring the implementation of the agreed development goals, as an effective development forum and strengthening its role in the prevention of conflicts through development support. In this context, the Meeting appreciated the proposal made by the President of the ECOSOC to further strengthen the coordinating role of the ECOSOC.

123. The Meeting took note of the final documents adopted in the second phase of the World Summit on the Information Society, held in Tunisia from 16 through 18 November 2005, following the first phase held in Geneva in December 2003, and emphasized the need for building on the commitments made in Geneva and Tunis by focusing on efforts aimed at bridging the gap between developing countries and industrial ones. It called on the Member States to focus on the follow-up of the Geneva and Tunis decisions, including by participating actively in the Internet Governance Forum. In this regard, the meeting welcomed the establishment of the Global Alliance for ICT and Development (GAID), which met on 19-20 June in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, to translate declarations and commitments made at the WSIS into action.

124. The Meeting reaffirmed the need to strengthen the role and capacity of the United Nations system to assist developing countries' efforts to achieve the internationally-agreed development goals, particularly goal number 8 of the Millennium Development Goal which calls for substantial increase in the development assistance to achieve these goals.

125. The Meeting emphasized the need for the promotion of the new global human order aimed at reversing the growing disparity between the rich and poor, both among and within countries through, inter alia, the eradication of poverty, the promotion of sustainable development, and the realization of the just aspiration of all peoples. In this regard, the Meeting also called for special attention to African Development issues and stressed the support of the international community to the NEPAD programme.

126. The Meeting reiterated that the pursuance of sustainable development should be the priority of all countries through the implementation of all internationally-agreed development goals and objectives at all levels, including those contained in the Johannesburg Plan of Implementation for the World Summit on Sustainable Development and the Millennium Declaration, (and) the Brussels Programme of Action, and the Almaty Programme of Action for Landlocked Developing Countries. The Meeting also stressed that the multilateral trading and financial systems should be open, equitable, rule-based, non-discriminatory and sensitive to Least Developed Countries (LDCs) situation. In this context, it urged the international community to facilitate the accession of those OIC Member States that seek to join the World Trade Organization (WTO) on fair terms, irrespective of political considerations.

127. The Meeting urged the developed countries that have not done so, to materialize the target of 0.7% of GNP for official development assistance set for end of 2006, in order to enable the developing countries to meet the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), as set by 2015. In this connection particular attention should be given to the implementation of the Monterrey Declaration.

128. The Meeting noted with appreciation the progress of implementation of projects in the Pilot Phase of the Capacity Building Programme for OIC Countries aimed at poverty alleviation in less-developed and low income countries and welcomed efforts for the implementation of the projects identified under Phase II of the Programme.

129. The Meeting called on United Nations Member States for the full implementation of the resolutions and the decisions of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) concerning the return of cultural properties to the peoples who were or still under colonial rule or foreign occupation. It also stressed the need for UNESCO to identify the stolen or illegally exported cultural properties in accordance with the relevant conventions on the subject. It emphasized the need to expedite the process of returning these properties to their countries of origin, in compliance with the resolutions of the United Nations General Assembly. It further emphasized the right of the Islamic countries to maintain and conserve their national heritage, as it constitutes the foundation of the cultural identity of these countries.

130. The Meeting welcomed the initiative by Malaysia to host the First OIC Anti-corruption and Enhancing Integrity Forum from 28-30 August 2006 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia with the objective of combating corruption, promoting good governance, increasing transparency and accountability among Member States.

131. The Meeting expressed its appreciation for the efforts of the OIC General Secretariat to ensure an effective presence of the Organisation on the international scene, and in international fora in particular in total collaboration and coordination with the Chairmen of the Contact Groups and the OIC Ambassadorial groups in New York, Geneva, Paris (UNESCO) and Vienna. The initiative of the OIC General Secretariat to organize an important conference on Islamophobia in Wilton Park, UK in May 2006, the holding of a fruitful meeting on cooperation between the UN and the OIC on July 2006, in Rabat, and the interactive policies of crisis management in dealing with the situations Somalia, Sudan, Chad, Iraq and the Philippines by dispatching fact finding mission aimed at reconciliation are among the efforts noted and welcomed by the Meeting. The OIC commendable effort to diligently implement the resolutions and programmes of the Ten-Year Plan of Action issued by the OIC Makkah Summit was met with strong approval and satisfaction. The same goes to the praiseworthy work regarding the structuring and revitalization of the function of the OIC General Secretariat and other OIC institutions.

Appendix I

Communiqué
regarding the inappropriate remarks about Islam uttered by His Holiness the Pope of Vatican in a lecture at the University of Regensburg, Germany on September 12, 2006

1. The foreign ministers of the OIC member states, in their annual coordination meeting held on the sidelines of 61st session of the United Nations General Assembly expressed their profound regrets over the terms used by His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI in his lecture at the University of Regensburg in Bavaria, Germany, with regard to Prophet Mohamed peace be upon him.

2. The ministers considered that these terms, reflect lack of correct information about the Holy Quran, the Prophet and the Islamic faith, at the time when the Muslim World was expecting from His Holiness the new Pope to continue the promotion of the cordial ties which prevailed with his predecessors, and with the Vatican since many decades.

3. The ministers also expressed their concern and apprehension that the language used by His Holiness the Pope might engender a situation of tension between the Muslim World and the Vatican, to the detriment of the real interests of the two parties.

4. Guided by the principles of Islam, the religion of moderation, tolerance, recognition of the other and all revealed religions, the ministers believe that it is befitting to the Vatican to retract or redress the said statement, in demonstration of the correct spirit of Christianity in dealing with Islamic issues.

5. The ministers expressed their appreciations to the Secretary-General of the OIC for his efforts to convey to the Vatican the concerns of Member States, and requested him to follow up this issue.

The OIC Six-Member Committee on Palestine held a meeting at the United Nations Headquarters in New York, on 21 September 2006), under the chairmanship of Professor Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu, Secretary General of the OIC.

II The meeting was attended by the representatives of the following Members States of the Committee:

- Islamic Republic of Pakistan;
- Republic of Senegal;
- State of Palestine;
- Malaysia.

III The Secretary-General opened the meeting with an address in which he reiterated the OIC's unwavering position on the cause of Palestine and Al-Quds Al-Sharif. He called for concerted efforts to end Israeli aggression against the Palestinian people, which had become more ferocious after the Palestinian legislative elections.

IV The Foreign Minister of the State of Palestine delivered an address in which he explained in detail the conditions in the Palestinian territories and the escalating Israeli aggression on the Gaza Strip and other Palestinian areas as well as the destruction by Israel of ministries, houses and government facilities and infrastructure. The statement also explained the dangerous situation in the Palestinian territories, particularly the City of Al Quds Al Sharif due to the continued construction of the racial segregation wall, settlement activities as well as Israeli Illegal measures and practices aimed at the Judaization of the Holy City.

V Members of the Committee made inputs in which they reiterated their countries' staunch support for Palestinian rights and unwavering positions. They called on the international community, particularly the Quartet, to assume its responsibilities of stopping Israel's aggression against the Palestinian people, to prevent continued Israeli killings, bombing of homes and targeting of infrastructure as well as government building and installations. They also demanded that pressure should be brought to bear on Israel to halt the construction of the racial segregation wall and all settlement activities, to resume the peace process in accordance with the set principles, to implement the road map as published and the international resolutions concerning Palestine and the Arab- Israeli conflict. They called for an urgent international peace conference for the purpose of implementing the UN resolutions on the principle of full withdrawal from the occupied Arab and Palestinian lands in return for a lasting and comprehensive peace.

VI The Committee forwarded the following recommendations to the Annual Coordination Meeting of the Foreign Ministers of the OIC Member States:

1. The meeting affirmed all the relevant resolutions adopted by the Islamic conferences and the Al Quds Committee regarding the question of Palestine, Al Quds and the Arab-Israeli conflict.

2. The meeting reiterated the centrality of the question of Al Quds Al Sharif to the entire Islamic Ummah and the need to preserve its Arab and Islamic character and defend the sanctity of Islamic and Christian sacred places. It renewed its condemnation of Israeli measures aimed at changing the City's condition, demographic composition as well as its Arab and Islamic character, particularly through illegal colonial practices including its settlement activities and the building of racial segregation walls in and around the City and isolating it from its Palestinian neighborhood.

3. The Committee reiterated its principled support for the right of the Palestinian people to attain their national independence and exercise their sovereignty in the context of the Palestinian state with Al Quds Al Sharif as its capital. It emphasized once again, the rights of Palestinian refugees under international law and General Assembly Resolution 194 (III) of 11th December 1948. The meeting reiterated its solidarity with the Palestinian people in their struggle for self determination under their legitimate national leadership.

4. It commended the Palestinian legislative elections which reaffirm the ability of the Palestinian people to practice democracy and exercise their right to self determination, to establish their independent state on their national soil, with Al Al Quds Al Sharif as its capital. It called on the international community to respect the democratic choice of the Palestinian people and expressed support for the Palestinian national dialogue which culminated in the signing of the national dialogue document.

5. It condemned Israel Israel for abducting the Speaker and members of the Legislative Council, ministers and elected members of the Municipal Councils, considered such a flagrant violation of international law, held it fully responsible for their lives and safety and demanded their immediate release.

6. It affirmed the illegality of the Israeli measures in Al Quds Al Sharif aimed at annexing, Judaizing and changing the City's demographic and geographic character. It warned on the danger of excavations being made under the Al Aqsa Mosque by Israel and its commencement of the demolition of the Mograbi Gate Hill which links the Al Baraq Square with the blessed Al Aqsa Mosque. It requested the international community, particularly the Security Council and UNESCO to assume the responsibilities of compelling Israel to respect international law and to stop its illegal and illegitimate practices in the occupied City of Al Quds.

7. The meeting strongly condemned the continuation of Israeli policies and practices in the occupied Palestinian territories, including in the City of Al Quds Al Sharif. It also condemned strongly the premeditated killing of Palestinian civilians, including executions without trials and the destruction of infrastructure, ministries, as well as Palestinian government buildings and installations, the blatant demolition of houses, gouging out of farm lands, the arrest and incarceration of thousands of Palestinians, and the imposition of collective sanctions on the entire Palestinian people, including the imposition of stringent restrictions on movements of persons and goods as well as curfews for long periods.

8. The meeting also condemned very strongly the illegal Israeli settlement policy and practices in the Palestinian territories through its settlement activities and the building of expansion wall which causes the confiscation of additional thousands of dounemes and the isolation of tens of Palestinian towns and villages and the expanded destruction of properties and means of livelihood of thousands of Palestinians. The meeting regarded these illegal activities as actual annexation of a large part of Palestinian territories, thus rendering impossible the establishment of a Palestinian state.

9. It condemned the measures imposed by Israel on crossings in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank regions which are in violation of the provisions of international humanitarian law and the crossing agreements reached under the auspices of Quartet. It also cautioned the foolhardiness of proceeding to impose similar arbitrary measures which will affect various aspects of the daily lives of the Palestinian people.

10. It called on states and bodies that stopped their assistance to the Palestinian people after the Palestinian legislative elections to review their positions and not to punish the Palestinian people for their democratic choices. It urged them to resume the provision of assistance to the Palestinian people and their national authority and help them to build their economy.

11. The meeting condemned Israel's defiance of the advisory opinion issued by the International Court of Justice on 9 July 2004 and its non compliance with the General Assembly resolution ES15/10 of 20 July 2004, as well as its continued construction of the wall on the occupied Palestinian territory, in and around the Al Quds Al Sharif. Consequently, the meeting once again called for the respect of the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice and to implement resolution ES-15/10. The meeting called for the imposition of punitive measures against entities and companies that contribute to the building of the wall and against the products of the settlements, settlers and all beneficiaries of the illegal activities in the occupied Palestinian territories, including Al Quds. The meeting called for the following specific measures:

(a) More measures should be taken in the context of the United Nations in accordance with operative paragraph 5 of resolution ES-15/10. It also called on the Security Council to assume its responsibility by adopting a clear resolution and taking necessary measures in this regard. The Secretary General of the United Nations should speed up work regarding the request of the General Assembly contained in the resolution 15/10 which provides for the establishment of a record of the magnitude of damage caused by the wall and to ascertain that the positions and documents of the UN General Secretariat agree completely with the advisory opinion.

(b) Concerning Member States, the meeting called for measures, including legislative means at collective, regional and individual levels to prevent products of illegal Israeli settlements from entering their markets under the obligations imposed by international treaties, to prevent Israeli settlers from entering their territories and to impose sanctions on companies and bodies that contribute to the construction of this wall and such other illegal acts in the occupied Palestinian territories.

(c) The meeting called on all The High Contracting Parties to the Fourth Geneva Convention to abide by the Common Article 1 of the four Geneva Conventions and to take measures to ensure Israel's compliance with the Convention.

12. It emphasized the need to implement the international resolutions relevant to the question of Palestine as well as the principles and resolutions of international law, including the law to protect human beings, particularly the law provided for in the Geneva Convention related to the protection of civilians during wars, adopted on the 12th of August 1949.

13. The meeting reiterated its support for comprehensive peace based on relevant United Nations resolutions, including Security Council resolutions 242 (1967), 338 (1973), 1397 (2002) and 1515 (2003) as well as the agreed principles which call on Israel to withdraw fully from the occupied Palestinian territories, including Al Quds Al Sharif and other occupied Arab lands. In this regard the meeting renewed its support for the Arab peace initiative endorsed by the 14th Arab Summit in Beirut, Lebanon on 28 March 2002.

14. The meeting called on the international community and the Quartet to exert necessary efforts to implement the road map so as to achieve its stated objectives in accordance with international law. It expressed its total rejection of positions and measures that contradict the rules of international legality and the authorities of the peace process, including Israeli unilateral measures which attempt to preempt the outcome of negotiations on the questions of final status. It called on States and all international organizations not to recognize or deal with any guarantees or promises that will result in the reduction of the legitimate rights of the Palestinian people and not reward the Israeli occupation which tries to impose its conditions through the policy of fait accompli.

15. It expressed a strong concern about the tragic conditions of Arab and Palestinian prisoners in Israeli prisons and detention camps and called on the international community - humanitarian and international rights organizations, to put pressure on Israel to release them in line with signed agreements and understanding.

16. It called for more effective participation of the United Nations in ensuring the success of the Middle East Peace Process and affirmed the continued responsibility of the United Nations towards all aspects of the question of Palestine until a just and comprehensive solution is found, which will end the occupation and enable the Palestinian people to exercise their inalienable national rights, including their right to return, to self determination and to establish their independent state on their national soil, with Al Quds Al Sharif as its capital.

17. It emphasized the need to continue to ensure that Israeli documents of accreditation at the United Nations do not cover lands occupied by Israel since 1967, including Al Quds Al Sharif.

18. It renewed its demand to states as well as international organizations and bodies to abide by international resolutions concerning the City of Al Quds as an integral part of Palestinian and Arab territories occupied in 1967 and called on them not to participate in any meeting or activity that serves the objectives of Israel in consolidating its occupation and annexation of the Holy City.

19. It emphasized the need to implement the Security Council resolution 237 on the return of displaced Palestinians and the General Assembly resolution 194 on the return of Palestinian refugees to their homes and properties as two important pillars of a just and lasting solution.

20. It emphasized the ongoing responsibility of the United Nations Relief and Work Agency for Palestinian Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) in discharging its duties towards all Palestinians wherever they may be under the General Assembly resolution in this regard.

21. It renewed its call to Member States to abide by the resolutions adopted by the Summit meetings and ministerial conferences on the question of Palestine and the Arab-Israeli conflict during voting at the United Nations and at international fora.

22. It decided to mandate the Secretary General to take the necessary measures to enhance communication and coordination on the question of Palestine and the Arab-Israeli conflict between the Organization of the Islamic Conference and the League of Arab States, the African Union, the Non-Aligned Movement, the European Union, the United Nations and its specialized agencies and to express appreciation for these institutions' solidarity stance and support for the just struggle of the Palestinian people.
